SNN launches the application Access SNN dedicated to investor relations

SN Nuclearelectrica SA (“SNN”) announces the launch of the mobile application “Access SNN”, dedicated to investor relations.

The application was designed to answer to the increasing demand of shareholders, investors, media representatives and general public for quick, concise and easy access information, with the purpose of facilitating access from any location to data regarding the main events in the activity of the company, up to date financial statements and archive, the evolution of the share price, dividends, investment calculator and other descriptive information about SNN. In the application you will also find the financial calendar of SNN, the documents of the upcoming GMS and graphs on the evolution of the shares’ price. The application allows for the quick dispatch of messages which will be received by the specialized department within SNN and will be solved in a short amount of time.

“We aim to have a transparent and proactive approach in the dialogue with our stakeholders, to be available on all the communication channels in order to provide information and answer to questions. The application that we launch today represents a tool that was designed starting with the needs of the shareholders and investors, and of those who want to know more information about SNN and we hope that it will become a hub of information” – Valentina Dinu, Investor relations.

“The quick access to a complete database about the company, its activities and its results in order to facilitate the investment decision based on clear, constant and on time information provided by the company, represents a responsibility on a listed company. The transparency of the management and corporate responsibility towards the shareholders and investors, as an integrated component of the corporate governance, are major directives for SNN’s activity” – Cosmin Ghita, CEO.

We invite you to download SNN’s application from Android and Apple stores or from SNN’s website www.nuclearelectrica.ro.

Note:

In compliance with the provisions of the regulation for the protection of natural persons regarding the processing of personal data and the free circulation of these data no. 679/27.04.2016, we inform you that SNN processes personal data in compliance with the Policy published on SNN’s website in the GDPR section.
