Presentation of financial statements

Individual financial statements are presented in accordance with the requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

Functional and presentation currency

The functional currency chosen is RON. The financial statements are presented in RON.

Significant accounting policies

The company organizes and conducts financial accounting, according to the Accounting Law no. 82/1991 republished, with subsequent amendments and completions and of I.F.R.S.

Financial accounting ensures the chronological and systematic recording, processing, publication and keeping of information on financial position, financial performance and other information related to the activity carried out.

Transactions in foreign currency

Foreign currency operations are recorded in RON at the exchange rate at the settlement date of the transactions. At the end of each period, foreign currency liabilities are valued at the foreign exchange market rate communicated by the National Bank of Romania on the last banking day of the period

Financial instruments

The company holds non derivative assets: trade receivables, and cash and cash equivalents.

Tangible assets

Tangible assets are assets that:

- Are held by a company to be used in the production of goods or the provision of services, to be leased to third parties or to be used for administrative purposes; and
- Are used over a period longer than one year.

The cost of production of fixed assets includes direct costs related to production such as direct materials, energy consumed for technological purposes, costs of employees salaries, legal contributions and other related costs resulting directly from the construction of the tangible fixed assets, location costs, initial delivery and handling costs, installation and assembly costs, test costs for the correct operation of the asset, professional fees and fees paid in connection with the asset, the cost of designing the products and obtaining the necessary authorizations;

Subsequent expenditures for a tangible fixed asset are recognized:

- As expenses in the period in which they were incurred if they are considered as repairs or the purpose of such expenses is to ensure the continued use of the asset with the maintenance of the initial technical parameters; or
- As a component of the asset, in the form of future expense, if the conditions are met to be considered as investment in fixed assets.

Depreciation of tangible assets is calculated from commissioning to full recovery of their value.

The Company calculates and records in the accounting the amortization of tangible, leased or leased property assets.

The land is not depreciating.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets include:

- Formation expenses;
- Development expenditure;
- Concessions, patents, licenses, trademarks, rights and similar assets, except those created internally by the company;
- goodwill;
- other intangible assets;
- advances granted for intangible assets;
- intangible assets under construction.

Amortization of intangible assets is allocated on a systematic basis over the best estimate of its useful life.

The method of amortization of intangible assets is the straight line method.

Items of stock

Entry of inventories is accounted for at the date of transfers of risks and benefits.

Sales reductions granted by the supplier and included on the purchase invoice diminish the cost of purchasing the goods.

In determining the cost of production, the standard cost method is used, taking into account the normal levels of materials and consumables, labor, efficiency and production capacity. Levels considered normal for material consumption are reviewed over a 12 months period.

Income

Revenues are increases in economic benefits during the year, which generated an increase in equity in forms other than those expressing new contributions from the company's owners. Revenues are recognized on accrual basis.

Costs

Company expenses are the amounts paid or payable.

Expenditure accounting is based on expenditure types, as follows:

Synthetic expenditure accounts comprising several items with different tax deductibility regimes are developed in analytics so that each analyst reflects the specific content.

The debts of the company

The company's debts are accounted for in the accounts on the accounts of third parties. Suppliers and other debtors accounts are held by category, as well as by each individual or legal entity.

Employee entitlements are recorded in the accounts with deduction of contributions.

Payroll tax must be recognized as a liability within the limit of the unpaid amount.

The valuation of debts denominated in foreign currency and those denominated in RON according to the exchange rate is made at the exchange rate communicated by the National Bank of Romania, valid at the end of the financial year.

Commercial and financial cuts

Sales reductions granted by the vendor and include those on the purchase invoice adjust in the sense of reducing the purchase cost of the goods.

Sales cuts to customers adjust to reduce the amount of transaction revenue.

Contingent Assets and Liabilities

Contingent assets and liabilities are disclosed in the explanatory notes if there is a likelihood of occurrence of economic benefits.

Events following the preparation of the financial statements

Post balance sheet events are those events, whether favorable or unfavorable, occurring between the balance sheet date and the date on which the annual financial statements are authorized for issue. They are presented in the notes when they are considered significant.

Events and uncertainty factors affecting or capable to affect the company's activity

The specific Business Environment is affected by the profit market fluctuations. Automotive industry products have a higher level of technicality and complexity and this fact is reflected by the higher price of these products, the acquisition of this specific type of expensive product being also influenced by the consumption policies.

All of the above doesn't affect the company's ability to access new loans or to refinance the previous ones, on the previous transactions terms and conditions or even more favorable.

Even so, the company's debtors can be affected by the lower level of available liquidities, and this could affect their capacity of repaying the due debts, this detail having an impact on the cash flow provisions as well.

The company can't predict all the events which could have an impact on the profile/financial sector, nor can predict the possible effects on the financial situations.

The company can't estimate the possible effects of the financial situation of the future fluctuations of profile market, future liquidities downfall on the financial market, financial assets devaluation, credit market collapses or increases in the currency volatility.

Even so, the company considers that, in the specific conditions of the specific market on which the company has its activity, characterized by a strong specialization of the participants and a few number of them, the risk evaluation and management can be done daily monitoring the cash flows activity and making short term predictions regarding the net liquidities.

The company is not object for external imposed capital requirements.
