Important event to be reported: Information regarding fiscal and Customs alterations with impact on OIL TERMINAL' revenues

OIL TERMINAL informs its shareholders and investors that, following the Order no.3236/27.12.2018' coming into force, order issued by National Agency of Fiscal Administration, oil products trades' authorization terms have been altered, a part of Oil Terminal' clients not being able to fulfill the new technical terms of re authorization imposed by this order.

Therefore, the economic operators trade authorizations, including the authorizations of those loading energetic products in trucks according a contract of services supplies in Oil Terminal SA, cease their availability since 31.01.2019.

Since 01.02.2019, the activity of gas oil loading into trucks in Oil Terminal SA will be substantially reduced, fact determining a 3 – 4% revenues decrease in the company' turnover.

We remind that, Oil Terminal started the necessary steps to get the authorization for global guarantee use, according to legal provisions, waiting for the Customs General Direction to communicate the necessary value to be guaranteed.
