- The top 10 competitors have returns in excess of 15%; nearly 50 participants register two-digit returns
- The youngest participant is 25 years old, the eldest one is 83
- Ludwik Sobolewski, BVB's CEO: We plan to launch the second edition later this year

"Conduc de randament" (Driven by Return), the first real-life trading competition organized by the [Bucharest Stock Exchange \(BVB\)](http://Bucharest Stock Exchange (BVB)), has come to an end: the winner of the 4-month trading competition registered a return of 30.34 percent.

"I would like to congratulate the winner for the return he obtained in four months of trading. Naturally, all the participants in this competition deserve recognition. They are the proof that one can achieve outstanding results once being involved in the capital market. We hope the first edition of the << Conduc de randament >> competition will inspire current and potential participants to the capital market. It's clearly been an inspiration to us, and following the requests received so far we plan to launch the second edition later this year," announced BVB's CEO Ludwik Sobolewski.

"Having ordinary people reporting returns in excess of 30 percent shows we have investors who are able to analyze very attentively the activity of the listed company. Their success is a signal to other potential participants to the market, those who are still pondering and have not invested in the companies listed on BVB so far, that success on the capital market is as real as it can be," said BVB's Chairman Lucian Anghel.

The winner of the competition will be awarded a Dacia Duster SUV. The main partner of the project is Raiffeisen Bank. Second and third largest returns amounted to 24.13 percent, or 24.01 percent respectively. The top 10 competitors registered returns in excess of 15 percent, while nearly 50 participants had two-digit returns, which corresponds to gains larger than 10% during those four months. The youngest participant of the "Conduc de randament" competition is 25 years old, while the eldest one is 83 years old.

The first 20 participants who recorded the largest returns will be awarded by the Bucharest Stock Exchange and its partners as follows:
