EXECUTION OF A TRANSACTION BASED ON THE EMI LICENSE PASSPORT

The Management Board of Aforti Holding S.A. with registered office in Warsaw, hereinafter referred to as the "Company", "Issuer" in reference to the current report RB ESPI 64/2021 of December 23, 2021, informs that today it received information from Aforti PLC, a subsidiary with registered office in Great Britain that on June 21, 2022 a company from the Aforti Capital Group (hereinafter the "Group") EPMAP Limited based in Cyprus made the first payment transaction with currency exchange for an entity located in Romania as a result of passporting a license for an EU Electronic Money Institution pursuant to the applicable directives EU on Payment Services and Electronic Money ("EMI").

The above event is a confirmation of the commencement of operating activities under the EMI License in Romania.

Passporting the EMI license allows to implement the strategy of the Aforti Capital Group, according to which the Group develops its operations in 11 countries of Central and Eastern Europe, offering services, including currency exchange, factoring, running multi-currency accounts and currency transfers.

The Issuer will inform about further stages in subsequent current reports.
