Important events to be reported: Notice on the court's dismissal of the petition to open insolvency proceedings against the Issuer.

Impetum Investments S.A. (the "Company" or the "Issuer") informs investors, further to Current Report no. 15/2026 dated 16.06.2026, that on 05.10.2026 the Bucharest Tribunal ruled, in case file no. 23826/3/2026, on the petition to open insolvency proceedings filed against the Company.

According to the summary of the ruling published on the courts' portal, the court took note of the withdrawal of one of the petitioning creditors, upheld the Issuer's objection and dismissed the petition to open insolvency proceedings as unfounded.

The activity of Impetum Investments and its portfolio companies continues under normal conditions, and the security interests created in favour of investors remain valid and unaffected. We continue to focus our attention and resources on developing the portfolio and on our relationship with investors, whom we thank for the trust and patience they have shown during this period.

The Company remains committed to fulfilling its obligations towards investors, including those relating to the IMPI26E and IMPI27E bond issues, and will inform investors of any significant developments in this case, in accordance with the applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Administrator,
Andrei Valentin CIONCA
