Slatina, 27 April 2021 – ALRO S.A. (BVB: ALR, “the Company” or “ALRO”), one of the largest vertically integrated aluminium producers in Europe, measured by production capacity, will open, at its site in Slatina, a vaccination centre for its employees and their families.

The Company set up the vaccination centre within its premises in Slatina, complying with all the Public Health Department requirements for such facilities, and thus, received the approval to start the vaccination process beginning with 4th of May 2021.

“Vaccination is the only chance we have to return to a state of normality both in our private lives and in business and we consider it is our duty to support the local and national authorities’ efforts to speed up this process and to offer our employees the opportunity to receive the necessary protection against COVID-19”, said Marian NĂSTASE, Chairman of the Board of Directors at ALRO. “We are committed to taking all the necessary actions to overcome this unprecedented medical crisis that affected the entire world and to supporting the communities where we activate in their efforts to mitigate the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic", added Marian NĂSTASE.

Ever since the beginning of the pandemic, ALRO Group supported the efforts of the local and national institutions to prevent and mitigate the effects of the health crisis through donations of over RON 1,000,000, consisting of money, medical and protective equipment. Furthermore, the Group implemented comprehensive protocols and procedures to maintain business continuity and to operate in safe conditions, at normal parameters, with a fully functional distribution chain.
