Important events to be reported: Admission as an Individual Clearing Member of CCP.RO Bucharest S.A.

BRK Financial Group S.A. informs investors and the general public that it has completed the admission process and, on 24 November 2026, obtained Individual Clearing Member status in the clearing, guarantee and settlement system operated by CCP.RO Bucharest S.A., for the Derivatives Section for Stocks and Indices (ROFS), pursuant to CCP.RO letter No. 1164/25.11.2026.

Once the operational requirements set out in the CCP.RO Rules have been met, this status will allow the Company to participate directly in the system operated by the central counterparty for the clearing, guarantee and settlement of transactions in equity and index derivatives, initially for its own account, within the scope of the rights granted upon admission and in accordance with applicable regulations.

The admission is in line with BRK Financial Group S.A.'s development strategy and creates the conditions for diversifying the range of investment products and services offered to clients, including those designed to manage risk and implement hedging strategies.

As a founding member of CCP.RO Bucharest S.A., BRK Financial Group S.A. reaffirms its commitment to supporting the development and modernisation of Romania's capital market infrastructure and to contributing actively to the development of the local derivatives market.

The Company will inform investors of the availability of services relating to trading in derivative financial instruments as these become operational.
